STUDENT TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ENROLMENT

Student acknowledgment of acceptance of Terms and Conditions

Please read the following Terms and Conditions before submitting an 'Application for Admission Form', which will acknowledge that you understand and accept the contents:

General Terms and Conditions – All Students

- The College (Shafston College Ltd, trading as Service Skills Academy and Mary McConnel School of Early Childhood) undertakes to provide you (the student) with the assistance, information and resources reasonably required to complete your chosen course within the specified time, however, the onus remains with you to use the available assistance, information and resources to make satisfactory progress in your studies and complete by the specified time or apply for an extension prior to this time – See further information in the Suspension and Deferral or Extension of Study section below.
- You are enrolling into the Nationally Recognised qualification selected on your 'application for admission form'. Acceptance and confirmation of your enrolment is formalised by your registration at orientation / induction or commencement using your unique student portal login.
- Courses requiring academic prerequisites may require you to provide proof of that you hold that the pre-requisite qualification or unit.
- VET Student Loans - Important Information
 - VET Student Loan assistance is a loan from the Commonwealth;
 - A VET Student Loan will remain as a personal debt obligation until it is repaid to the Commonwealth;
 - A student may wish to seek independent financial advice prior to applying for a VET Student Loan;
 - VET Student Loans will not be approved for students who do not meet eligibility requirements.
- You must meet the requirements of the course selected and to abide by the rules and regulations of the College. If you fail to comply with any of the College rules, or your behaviour is deemed unacceptable by the College, your enrolment may be cancelled. Information on College, rules and regulations is contained in the Student Code of Conduct and Student Handbook located on the website www.ssa.edu.au.
- You are responsible for your own books, equipment and personal items and hereby release, indemnify and hold harmless SSA against all liability and claims for any loss or damage to such items, howsoever caused except where liability is expressly imposed by law.
- All learning related material supplied by the College are copyright, and remain the property of the College. Unauthorised copying may constitute a breach of the Copyright Act 1968 (as amended).
- You may be required, and hereby provide permission, to attend organised SSA excursions and activities as part of the course.
- The College is hereby authorised to obtain medical treatment for myself should such action be deemed necessary by the College or a staff member acting on behalf of the College. You agree to indemnify and hold harmless the College and its staff for any expense, loss, damage or liability of whatsoever nature or howsoever occasioned as a result of authorising and arranging such emergency medical treatment.
- You agree to advise the College of changes of the personal information held by the College (in accordance with the Australian Privacy Principles) including: name, address and/or contact details changes during the period of enrolment with 7 days of occurrence.
- The College maintains a Privacy and Personal Information Policy which can be viewed on the website ssa.edu.au. In addition to the provisions of this policy, you authorise the College to release administrative information concerning my academic performance at the College (including academic progress and attendance information) to any person who may lawfully require that information, as well as parents/guardians, agents and potential employers. If you do not agree, you must advise the College in writing.
- Students may apply to access information relating to their enrolment including course participation and progress at any time. Instructions on how to access that information is contained within the Colleges Student access to records policy and procedure published on the website www.ssa.edu.au.
- You acknowledge that you have read and understood the Student Grievance Policy outlined in this document, and associated documents published on the website ssa.edu.au.
- You acknowledge that you have read, understood and agree to the terms of the Refund Policy outlined in this document, and published on the website www.ssa.edu.au.
- Important Notice to the Consumer – In the event that acceptance of an offer is as a result of an Unsolicited Consumer Agreement you have the right to cancel this agreement within 10 business days from and including the day after you signed or received this agreement. Details about your additional rights to cancel this agreement are set out in the information attached to this agreement.

16. The Student Agreement, and the availability of complaints and appeals process, does not remove your right to take action under Australian consumer protection law.

Fees, Cancellations and Refunds - Vet Student Loans and Fee-Help Eligible Courses

17. Prior to enrolling, fees may be altered without notice. Once a student has completed enrolment, fees will not be subject to change for the normal duration of the enrolled course.
18. Census Dates for each Unit of Study are not less than 20% through each Unit of Study, and are published in the Schedule of Fees on the website www.ssa.edu.au.
19. No refund of up-front payment or re-credit of a VET FEE-HELP balance will be offered to students expelled for misbehaviour outlined in the Student Code of Conduct or academic misconduct. The Student Code of Conduct and Student Handbook are available on the website www.ssa.edu.au.
20. If you apply for Vet Fee-Help deferred payment option, it is your responsibility to be aware of your Vet Unit of Study census dates and to withdraw on or by this date to not incur a Vet Fee-Help debt for that unit.
21. Each Vet Unit of Study tuition fee is required to be paid in full on or by the census date or you may apply for Vet Fee-Help loan to pay your fees. Students who have fees remaining outstanding after the Vet Unit of Study census date, and who have not completed an application for Vet Fee-Help will not be permitted to continue and will receive no academic results. For refund purposes, this will be treated as formal cancellation after scheduled start date for that course.
22. Vet Fee-Help is applicable to tuition fees only and that you will be required to pay any incidental fees identified in your confirmation of enrolment by the invoiced due dates.
23. Incidental fees and learning material and resource fees are non-refundable after the course start date.
24. Notification of cancellation or withdrawal from courses must be made in writing to Service Skills Academy on or before the census date for each Vet Unit of Study on the required withdrawal form.
25. Cancellation and withdrawal by the student in writing by close of business on or before the enrolled Vet Unit of Study census date attracts a full refund of any prepaid tuition fees. No transcript of results will be issued.
26. Students who have applied for Vet Fee-Help for the enrolled Vet Unit of Study and withdraw in writing by close of business on or before the census date will not incur a Vet Fee-Help debt for the applicable Vet Unit of Study. No transcript of results will be issued.
27. Cancellation and withdrawal by the student in writing after the enrolled Vet Unit of Study census date will not attract a refund and any prepaid fees for the applicable Vet Unit of Study will be forfeited. Statement of Attainment will be issued for any course results achieved.
28. Students who have applied for Vet Fee-Help for the enrolled Vet Unit of Study and withdraw after the enrolled Vet Unit of Study census date will incur the Vet Fee-Help debt for the applicable Vet Unit of Study. A Statement of Attainment will be issued for any units completed.
29. A student who withdraws after the census date for a Vet Unit of Study may apply for special consideration in line with the Student Review Procedures for Re-crediting a VET FEE-HELP Balance. These are published at www.ssa.edu.au.
30. Any refund will be paid to the person or entity that originally paid the course fees and, where possible, in the same currency in which the fees were paid.
31. If you notify us of your cancellation and formal withdrawal in writing on or before the census date and on submission of the completed SSA Student Refund Form, your refund / re-credit will be processed within four weeks of the receipt of the completed SSA Student Refund Form or census date whichever is the later.
32. The College will not enrol students who have withdrawn from a VET unit of study, in subsequent units of study without written instruction from the student. Students who wish to re-enrol in a VET unit of study must notify the Student Administration Manager in writing specifying the date of return to studies and the relevant VET unit/s of study.
33. No refund of up-front payment or re-credit of a VET FEE-HELP balance will be given to students who are expelled for misbehaviour outlined in the Student Code of Conduct or academic misconduct. The Student Code of Conduct is available on the website www.ssa.edu.au.
34. In the event that the College does not commence your course on the agreed starting date or is unable to deliver your course or its mandatory replacement in full (provider default), you will be offered a refund of unused pre-paid fees (i.e. the tuition fees you have paid to date less the total cost for the tuition services provided to you before the default day) and a re-credit of your VET FEE-HELP BALANCE for uncompleted units. Alternatively, you may be offered enrolment in an alternative course by the College and have your pre-paid fees applied to that alternate course. The alternative course may have different fees to the original course. You may choose whether you would prefer a refund / re-credit of unused tuition fees, or to accept a place in another course. If you choose placement in another course, the College will ask you to sign a document to indicate that you accept the placement. Details of refund arrangements are found in the 'Refund

Policy (for students enrolled in VET FEE-HELP enabled courses)' published on the website www.ssa.edu.au.

35. If the College is unable to place you into an alternative course or provide a refund of unused fees, our Tuition Assurance Scheme (TAS) provider will offer to assist you by providing you with the choice of either; finding a suitable course at a second provider; or refunding the unused tuition fees and arranging a re-credit of your VET FEE-HELP balance for uncompleted units. Details of this arrangement are found in the 'Statement of VET Tuition Assurance (VET FEE-HELP)' published on the website ssa.edu.au.
36. I understand that if a new version of the National Qualification is endorsed by the relevant authorities and released, the College must manage the transition of its students to the new version in accordance with the Australian Skills Quality Authority's directions and that this circumstance does not constitute Provider Default.
37. I understand that in the event that acceptance of an offer is as a result of an Unsolicited Consumer Agreement, the applicant has a cooling-off period of 10 days, from the date of signing the Acceptance Agreement, to withdraw from the course at no financial penalty.
Fees, Cancellations and Refunds – Non Vet Student Loans or Vet Fee-Help Eligible Courses
38. Prior to enrolling, fees may be altered without notice. Once a student has completed enrolment, fees will not be subject to change for the normal duration of the enrolled course.
39. I agree to pay the tuition fees and other charges applicable for my course on the due dates and acknowledge and agree that tuition fees may alter from time to time. I also understand that failure to pay my tuition fees may result in my enrolment being cancelled.
40. No refund will be given to students who are expelled for misbehaviour outlined in the Student Code of Conduct or academic misconduct. The Student Code of Conduct and Student Handbook is available on the website www.ssa.edu.au.
41. I understand that if after commencing the course, I discontinue my program before completion without gaining approval from the college to do so, I may remain liable to pay the full course tuition fees and any expenses, costs or disbursements incurred by the College in recovering any outstanding monies, including debt collection agency fees and solicitors' costs.
42. All notifications of withdrawal from a course or requests for refunds must be made in writing.
43. No refund of up-front payment will be given to students who are expelled for misbehaviour outlined in the Student Code of Conduct or academic misconduct. The Student Code of Conduct is available on the website www.ssa.edu.au.
44. In the event that the College does not commence your course on the agreed starting date or is unable to deliver your course or its mandatory replacement in full (provider default), you will be offered a refund of unused pre-paid fees (i.e. the tuition fees you have paid to date less the total cost for the tuition services provided to you before the default day). Alternatively, you may be offered enrolment in a suitable alternative course by the College and have your pre-paid fees applied to that alternate course. The alternative course may have different fees to the original course. You may choose whether you would prefer a refund of unused tuition fees, or to accept a place in another course. If you choose placement in another course, the College will ask you to sign a document to indicate that you accept the placement. Details of refund arrangements are found in the 'Refund Policy (for students enrolled in non-VET FEE-HELP enabled courses)' published on the website ssa.edu.au

45. If the College is unable to provide a refund of unused fees or place you in an alternative course our Tuition Assurance Scheme (TAS) provider will refund unused tuition fees, only if they cannot find a suitable alternative course at another provider.
46. I understand that if a new version of the National Qualification is endorsed by the relevant authorities and released, the College must manage the transition of its students to the new version in accordance with the Australian Skills Quality Authority's directions and that this circumstance does not constitute Provider Default.
47. I understand that in the event that acceptance of an offer is as a result of an Unsolicited Consumer Agreement, the applicant has a cooling-off period of 10 days, from the date of signing the Acceptance Agreement, to withdraw from the course at no financial penalty.

Suspension and Deferral or Extension of Study

48. Students may request in writing to defer their course prior to the offered course start date. Prepaid fees will be transferred to the deferred course start date. Deferral requests need to re-commence within 12 months of the original offered course start date.
49. Students may request in writing to suspend their course or defer their next Vet Unit of Study after the course start date if requested prior to the start date of the suspending or deferring VET Unit of Study. Course suspensions or deferred VET Units of Study must recommence within 6 months.
50. Students may not defer or suspend a Vet Unit of Study after the census date has passed.
51. A student may at any time during a course of study, cancel enrolment for the course or amend it by withdrawing from one or more Vet Units of Study. However, the cancellation of enrolment will be subject to academic penalty for units of study commenced.
52. Withdrawal from VET Units of Study or change of enrolment prior to the commencement of a Vet Unit of Study will result in no academic penalty for Units not yet commenced.

53. Students may request in writing to extend their course of study prior to their course end date if they have exceptional personal circumstances. The decision to extend a course of study is wholly at the discretion of Service Skills Academy. The maximum extension period is 3 months.
54. Students who do not request a course extension prior to the course end date will be required to re-enrol and repeat the Vet Unit of Study or Unit of Competency not completed. The cost of repeat Vet Unit of Study or individual Units will be calculated on a Pro-Rata basis of Units not completed.

Miscellaneous Fees

55. Students are entitled, at no additional cost, to a formal Testamur and Statement of Results upon successful completion of all course requirements.
56. There is an Administration Fee of $55 for the reissue of any Testamur/Qualifications and/or statement of results reissued or reprinted for courses currently delivered by the College ($110 for courses no longer offered).
57. There is an Administration Fee of $15 per document for the reissue of any Statements of Attainment or progressive Statement of Attainments before course completion or
